

FIFTH annual conference
4 pm 20th October to 4pm 21st October 2016
'MAKING RE WORK' – VALUES, DEPTH AND ENQUIRY
at
ST MELLION RESORT, NEAR CALLINGTON, EAST CORNWALL
<http://www.st-mellion.co.uk/>

Keynote addresses:

Helen Matter, Schools' Adviser, Diocese of St Edmundsbury and Ipswich
'Concepts to Classroom'

Grace Davie, Professor emeritus of Sociology at the University of Exeter, and Chair of the St Luke's College Foundation
'Learn Teach Lead RE: The Context' (Religion in Britain today)

Plus WORKSHOPS focused on subject leadership, new projects, developments in 'assessment without levels' and teachers' subject knowledge

Deadline for residential bookings: 17th July 2016
Deadline for non-residential bookings: 30th September 2016
Please apply by e-mail to educationevents@exeter.anglican.org for your priority booking form
Registration fee: £50 (inclusive of VAT) per individual delegate (non-refundable)

Apart from the registration fee, this event is FREE to all teachers of RE (including initial teacher education trainees, newly qualified teachers and teaching assistants) in Devon and Cornwall community and aided schools, and in academies. Delegates who have attended previous conferences are encouraged to apply, but there may be a waiting list to enable other teachers to access this CPD. Places will also be allocated across local LTLRE hubs. The conference is supported by a grant from the St Luke's College Foundation <http://www.st-lukes-foundation.org.uk/>

