

Learn Teach Lead RE

Improving quality: building community

SIXTH Annual Religious Education Conference
4:30 19th October to 3:30pm 20th October 2016

‘Speaking wisely about religion and belief’
at St Mellion Resort, Near Callington, East Cornwall
<http://www.st-mellion.co.uk/>

Keynote addresses:

Dave Wells: 3D Catholicism:

The Essential RE Teachers’ Guide to Roman Catholic Beliefs Today

Ian Jamison: Speaking Wisely and Listening Well:
Developing Dialogue About Religion and Belief

Ed Pawson: Meeting Unmet Needs in Religious Education
Through Building Community and Improving Quality

Plus

A Full Range of Practical Workshops including:

Experiential EY RE; Planning; Pedagogy; Assessment and Subject Knowledge Workshops led by Teachers and People within the Faith Community

Deadline for residential bookings: 17th July 2017

Deadline for non-residential bookings: 27th September 2017

Please apply by e-mail to educationevents@exeter.anglican.org for your priority booking form Cost: £60 (non-refundable VAT Exempt)

This event is open to all teachers of RE (including initial teacher education trainees, newly qualified teachers and teaching assistants) in Devon and Cornwall community and aided schools, and in academies. Delegates who have attended previous conferences are encouraged to apply, but there may be a waiting list to enable other teachers to access this CPD. Places will also be allocated across local LTLRE hubs. The conference is supported by a grant from the St Luke’s College Foundation <http://www.st-lukes-foundation.org.uk/> Final programme may be subject to change but themes will remain. Priority will be given to those who have not previously attended and only one delegate per school may apply for a residential place.