Exploring Diversity

rich traditions within and across religious and non-religious communities

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: FIONA MOSS

Fiona Moss is the Education and Programmes Manager for Culham St Gabriel's Trust. Previously, Fiona was a successful primary teacher of RE before becoming an Adviser with RE Today and NATRE CEO.

Fiona will explore how a religion and worldviews approach to teaching RE - both content and pedagogy - supports understanding of the richness of communities.

Also: Special Feature on Pilgrimage and 'Lived Experience' including panel discussion with people from diverse religion and belief traditions

Plus: A wide variety of workshops for primary and secondary teachers
